

laara Moses is a former dancer with the renowned Batsheva Dance Company and the Batsheva Ensemble and subsequently, a co-founder of the Maria Kong Dance Company, which continues to tour internationally. She is a leading teacher of Gaga, the movement language developed by Ohad Naharin, Batsheva's artistic director, and is also the co-founder and artistic director of Hasadna'a, a dance workshop in Tel Aviv for professional dancers from all over the world.